

FLY Beyond 2020 features dual tracks: a physical and a digital version.

Which one is best for you?

PHYSICAL CAMP at the ARC in Wisconsin

Sunday, July 19 through Thursday, July 23, 2020

Teen Rate = $425

Leader Rate = $150

Register at www.afic.org/youth

ARC COVID-19 Preparations:

Precautions – Through cleaning and care, staff will work to prevent potential spread.

Meals – No buffets will be offered. All meals will be served on plates from behind barriers.

Lodging – Attendees will be spaced out over more rooms with families/attendees from the same local congregation staying together.

Outdoors – The camp will utilize outside settings for small group activities; meeting outside when feasible.

Safety – Teen and adult attendee safety will be a priority throughout the camp.

DIGITAL CAMP at Your Local Congregation

Starting Wednesday, July 22, 2020

Congregational Rate = $199

One digital rate covers all teens and leaders. Rate provides access to 16 training sessions.

Register at www.afic.org/youth

Your Church Preparations:

Precautions – You guide against spread. You know your congregational context.

Food – You control safety measures for food. You decide how to handle eating together.

Schedule – You determine pace and length. Options will be provided for content sequence between July 22 and September 7.

Environment – You pick the location for viewing the sessions together and how to process as a group.

Safety – You can manage teen and adult safety throughout your digital camp experience.
